UNDERSTANDING THE CHARGES ON YOUR BILL

Your bill after signing up, recontracting, or changing a plan/service within your bill cycle may be higher than expected.

What's in your bill

- Full subscription charge
Like all other postpaid services, your plan's subscription amount is billed 1 month in advance.
- Part-month charges
On top of your full subscription fee, you're charged for the period from your service activation/recontract date to the end of your bill cycle.

For example:

Your service activation/recontract date is on 1 April, and your bill cycle is from the 12th of the current month to the 11th of the following month.

- o The part-month charges are for 1 to 11 April.
- o The full subscription charge is for 12 April to 11 May.

If you recontract or change your plan/service within your bill cycle, a part of your old subscription fee may be returned to you as a bill credit.

IMPORTANT: Take note of your bill cycle, particularly the end date. You can see this on the 'Monthly' section of your bill.

- Service activation fee (for broadband only)
The service activation fee is from NetLink Trust and applies to all NEW broadband sign-up.
- Add-on purchases or usage charges (if any)
